Point 1	There is extended school funding available for allocation through the CAT. There was a discussion how this could best be used. Conclusion: supporting existing Breakfast Clubs to fund / support vulnerable children & start new breakfast clubs.
Point 2	Full discussion re implications of DV. Agreed the need for a layered approach including universal education (mention of CAP & Amethyst, both spoken highly of by HT), early intervention where families deemed vulnerable & support for children caught up in DV. (good work of BWA noted)
Point 3	Discussion re internal organization of the CAT.

Date of Claim:	10 th July
